

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

ELECTRONIC PUBLIC ACCESS (EPA) FEE SCHEDULE CHANGE

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

NOTICE is given that the Judicial Conference of the United States has amended the language of Section I of the Electronic Public Access Fee Schedule. The amendment imposes a cap on the current seven cents per page charge for Internet access to all electronic documents obtained from the public dockets of individual case records. This amendment establishes that a user will be charged a maximum $2.10, the equivalent of 30 pages, for electronic access to any single document in the judiciary, including those from locally-developed imaging systems.

Until this court begins accepting documents filed in an electronic format, the imposed cap will ONLY apply to proofs of claim and attachments (court dockets and claims registers are excluded).

The PACER Service Center has developed a procedure to apply the cap as part of the regular PACER billing process.

The fee cap will produce savings for attorneys and the public, while enabling the judiciary to continue to fund the Electronic Public Access Program, including Electronic Case Filing (ECF).
